Red Chinese Seen Ready To Go-It-Alone

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Red China may be on the verge of a go-it-alone policy which could carve the Communist world into two distinct and even opposing blocs.

Peking is flexing new muscles.
Possibly it feels more confident since the recognition extended by France. Turning Nikita Khrushchev's own words against him, Peking implies the Soviet premier and his European Communists should let Red China lead the revolution in Asia and Africa.

Khrushchev, who once promised to bury the West's social system, himself is going to be buried by the revolutionary movement, said Peking in its latest broadcast.

The attack accused Khrushchev of encouraging an "anti-party group" inside the Chinese party. The use of this phrase—coined by Khrushchev—is tinged with sarcasm.

The Chinese party never had a violent purge in the old Soviet style. If it had purges it avoided advertising them. But there is a hint in the use of the term
"anti-party" that Mao Tse-tung handled resistance to his policies within his own Politburo in the only way Communists seem able to deal with differences of opinion.

It is widely known that Khrushchev opposed Mao's attempt to launch Red China on the "great leap forward." Khrushchev applauded those in the Peking leadership—like Marshal Peng Teh-huai, an old comrade of Mao—who resisted the great leap.

The experiment with the great leap and people's communes—abandoned as a failure—is known to have caused trouble in the Communist Chinese army. Some officers feared it meant an end to Soviet military aid. Others resented expansion of the Chinese militia and the use of regular army soldiers as laborers.

Peng Teh-huai eventually was removed as defense minister and tossed off the Politburo. He has disappeared from public view.

The difference of opinion over China's internal policies was a root cause of the ideological split with the Kremlin.

Now the Chinese are beginning to sound like a party about to go its own way, and even to assert its undisputed sway over the revolution in Asia and Africa, on the ground that Khrushchev and his supporters have forfeited their claim to leadership.

They deny that Khrushchev has any right to unchallenged leadership in the first place.
The Chinese indicate it was their understanding that in this historical period the Russians were to be no more than first among equals—guides and perhaps financiers of the revolution but with no right to dictate to other Communist-ruled countries.

Youth Smoking Studied

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
As many girls as boys smoke.
High school students find it harder to kick the habit than adults.

These are some findings in a Harvard University study of smoking by high school students and their families in Newton, Mass., a suburb of Boston.

The American Cancer Society says that, because much of the data makes Newton's smoking habits consistent with national patterns, the study could reflect a national trend.

The report on Newton by Drs.
Eva J. Salber and Jane Worcester indicates that 57.4 per cent of the mothers smoke cigarettes compared with 49.9 per cent of the fathers.

Farm City Forum Termed Success

A step designed to create better rural-urban relations here had all the earmarks of success yesterday when more than 200 city and county folks gathered at the 4-H and Grange Building for the community's first ever Farm City Forum.

A noon dinner pushed the Farm Bureau sponsored program off to an enthusiastic start. A real, down-to-earth look at urban life accented the Forum address by Henry Sch-river, considered an outstanding spokesman for agriculture in the Midwest.

Farm Bureau officials termed the Forum a solid success in its first venture. They assured assembled guests that the project will become an annual event.

The objective of creating better country-city relations was boosted by rural citizens who invited many urban people as their guests. Numerous local businessmen and industrial heads were in attendance.

LEWIS HAY, Route 1, Lockbourne, served as toastmaster.
Singled out for special introduction were T. M. Glick, longtime president of the local Farm Bureau; Glenn Yapple, the county's outstanding young farmer of 1963; William Stout, the community's outstanding young man of the year; Ed Wallace, named the area's senior citizen; George Hamrick, local Extension Service agent; Loring Leist, the county's Farm Bureau chief executive; Dave DeLong, president of the Circleville Area Chamber of Commerce; Ed Johnson, the Farm Bureau's Tri-County organization director; and Russell Palm, an avid promoter of the Farm City Forum.

Schriver, often referred to as a "second Will Rogers," is a combination dairy-farm farmer in Lorain County. His appearance here in overalls and blue denim shirt more than gave this title a ring of truth.
The witty speaker in the homespun garb lived up to his reputation as a philosopher-farmer. His talk was tagged,
"Cows, Kids and Co-ops."

The message he had to tell was delivered in rhyming verse and on a level considered by all as easy to understand. Colorful charts were incorporated at random to add emphasis to points where needed.

Nice weather brought dozens of citizens to the city dump Sun-spring cleanup. Waiting at the dump to buttonhole voters was collection.

School Strike Value Veiled

NEW YORK (AP) — A
"whoopie success," said a leader of the boycott for full integration of New York City's schools.

"Mostly a fizzle," said the school board president.
Both were talking about the 464,362 pupils who stayed away from school for one day Monday.

President James B. Donovan of the Board of Education said:
"All it did was furnish an excuse for kids to stay out."

Normally, 100,000 of the city's one million public school pupils stay home each day anyway because of illness or other reasons.

Of the 43,800 public school teachers in the nation's largest school system, 3,537 — three times more than normal — also were absent. Some joined picket lines of Negroes, Puerto Ricans and others outside the schools.
Children also marched on picket lines.

'Bama Showdown Delayed

TUSKEGEE, Ala. (AP) — An expected showdown between riot-trained state troopers and the federal government over court orders to integrate two rural schools was delayed today—probably for 24 hours.

Mechanics of formally transferring 12 Negro pupils from recently closed Tuskegee High School to schools at Shorter and Notasulga apparently caused the delay.

The Justice Department has not revealed its plans for implementing the federal court order to transfer the pupils.
Few, if any, government agents were seen around the schools today. At other similar situations in Alabama they have been prominent.

The mayor of Notasulga, Ala., James Rea, appealed to Gov. George Wallace that troopers be sent to the west Alabama area to prevent possible violence. Troopers earlier were sent to Tuskegee.

Twelve Negro students who attended the desegregated but white-boycooted Tuskegee High School until it was closed last week by state authorities were ordered transferred to white schools at nearby Notasulga and Shorter.

In Tuskegee, there was a threat of racial demonstrations from Negroes protesting the closing of Tuskegee High.

School officials and law enforcement officers assumed that the 12 Negro students would show up at Notasulga and Shorter today, although the decreed handed late Monday by U.S. Dist. Judge Frank M.
Johnson Jr., fixed Wednesday
as the deadline.

Notasulga and Shorter were the last remaining all-white high schools in Macon County where Negroes outnumber white residents 5-1. Tuskegee High was restricted to white pupils until last September when the same federal judge opened its doors to 13 Negroes.

The 250 white students from Tuskegee are attending stillsegregated public schools elsewhere and a private school.

In Jackson, Miss., a traffic injury to a Negro pedestrian touched off the first racial demonstrations in that city in more than six months.

Police used tear gas and warning blasts from shotguns to break up a protest Monday night involving about 1,000 Negroes — many of them high school and college students.

Earlier officers had quelled a protest march by barking commands to disperse through bullhorns.

Three Negroes received treatment for superficial buckshot wounds following the second flareup on the campus of Jackson State College, a state - supported all-Negro institution.

Last summer more than 1,000 Negroes were arrested during a month of demonstrations climaxed by the assassination of a Negro leader.

Mamie Ballard, 20, of Flora, Miss., a Jackson State coed suffered a fractured leg late Monday when she was struck by a car while crossing Lynch Street, a busy thoroughfare which cuts through the campus. Witnesses said the driver was a white person.

Officers said later they had arrested the motorist, who was ticketed for failure to yield to a pedestrian. Police declined to identify the motorist.

Cleveland Race Parley Called

Solution Sought
In School Fuss

CLEVELAND (AP) — Representatives of all sides in the city's school integration dispute were to meet at City Hall today in an effort to reach a settlement.

Mayor Ralph S. Locher called the meeting Monday night after announcing that he was calling on the Community Relations Board, which he heads, to mediate the dispute, which led to violence last week.

A few hours before the mayor's intervention in the controversy, the United Freedom Movement rejected a plan adopted by the Board of Education at its afternoon meeting to fully integrate bus-transported Negro pupils next September. The UFM is demanding immediate integration.

The rejection was followed by the second sit-in demonstration within a week at the board's downtown headquarters. More than 60 persons led by Harold B. Williams, UFM coordinator and executive secretary of the Cleveland branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, took positions in a third - floor hallway. The first sit-in there started last Friday morning and continued until Sunday night.

Williams also reaffirmed the UFM's warning announced at a rally Sunday night that school boycotts would be conducted Thursday and Friday.

Some 800 Negro pupils from the overcrowded Hazeldell Elementary School for two years have been transported by bus to three other East Side schools—
Brett, Memorial and Murray Hill—which have predominantly white enrollments.

The bus - transported pupils for the most part have been kept together by classes and not intermingled with the home district pupils. Integrationists demand that the School Board treat the transferred pupils like the other children in the three schools and mix them in classes according to test abilities. Such a move is opposed by parents of the white children, who say they fear full integration would impair the education their children are getting.

Navy Satellite Records Actions of 'Quiet Sun'

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Navy disclosed today it has secretly launched a satellite to monitor solar X rays and transmit the information to 15 nations during this period called the "years of the quiet sun."

The satellite may help in eventual development of a system for predicting storms on the sun which bedevil some radio communications on earth and pose a threat to manned space flight.

The Navy in its announcement didn't give details on the size of the spacecraft or when it was launched but indicated it was put into orbit riding piggy-back on some other satellite.

More information is expected at a news conference later in the day.

Already, the Navy scientists reported, the satellite has determined that the sun is fast approaching its "minimum of activity" in its 11-year cycle of sunspot activity.

This period of relative calm should last about two years, thus the 1964-1965 period was given the scientific designation of the international years of the quiet sun.

The Navy noted that the new spacecraft is the latest in a series of Navy solar-monitoring satellites. Three others were launched in 1960, 1961 and 1963 respectively but the Navy said the newcomer is now "the only active solar monitor in orbit."

In explaining the potential value of the satellite, scientists of the Naval Research Laboratory said solar X rays and ultraviolet rays create the iono-sphere, the region of electrified air at altitudes of about 50 miles which acts as a radio mirror and makes possible round-the-world short wave radio communication.

Since the sun is entering a quiet phase, scientists expect to get data to be compared with information acquired during the international geophysical year in 1957-1958, which was marked by a record-breaking period of stormy solar activity.

Meanwhile, a team of oph-thalmologists at Brooks Air Force Base in Texas declared an orbiting American astronaut can spy effectively on enemy territory with the unaided eye.

The paper, presented by Maj.
William B. Clark, said that with proper reconnaissance training,

Oswald Testimony Gets Secrecy Classification

WASHINGTON (AP) — The
secretly given testimony of Mrs. Marina Oswald on events preceding the assassination of President John F. Kennedy
"may not be released in your lifetime," Chief Justice Earl Warren has disclosed.

Warren said the presidential investigating commission which he heads will issue a statement
—perhaps Wednesday—when it finishes questioning its first witness, the slim and pretty widow of Lee Harvey Oswald.

She goes before the commission again today. "I don't know how newsworthy" the commission's statement will be, Warren told reporters. He added that if it contains information affecting national security, it may be suppressed for decades —"and I say that seriously."

This suggested that the commission intends to explore as thoroughly as possible, through Mrs. Oswald and other witnesses, delicate subjects such as Oswald's 1959 visit to Russia,

his unsuccessful effort to defect to the Soviet Union and his attempts, on a Mexican visit last September, to obtain visas for Russia or Cuba.

But Monday's day-long questioning of the Russian-born, 22-year-old Mrs. Oswald—who believes her Marxist husband assassinated Kennedy — dealt with Oswald's activity and movements in the United States, after he brought his bride here.

This was reported by the commission's general counsel,
J. Lee Rankin, during a break in the laborious testimony-taking through a State Department interpreter.

"Mrs. Oswald told us some things we hadn't heard before—some new things, new evidence," Rankin told questioners. He said she was "a very cooperative witness."

Warren declined to confirm Rankin's reference to "new evidence" when reporters intercepted him leaving the commission's offices later. "I would not comment on a witness' testimony in the middle of it," the chief justice said.

In the area of testimony mentioned by Rankin, the questioning presumably covered the source of the money which paid for Oswald's travels, his purchase of the mail-order rifle which Texas authorities say killed Kennedy, and any possible link between Oswald and Jack Ruby.

Ruby, a Dallas nightclub owner, shot Oswald to death in a Dallas police headquarters on Nov. 24, two days after the assassination.

'Platform' Needles Pros

NEW YORK (AP) — Clare Boothe Luce took dead aim at the 1964 crop of presidential candidates today and unleashed a platform to end presidential platforms.

It was strictly tongue in cheek
—or dagger in cheek.

The former Republican congresswoman and one - time ambassador to Italy said in an interview: "I'd enter the New Hampshire primary in a minute if I had a campaign manager, an organization and a political base. I've certainly got the program."

The program?
"I am for the 35 - hour week without any increase in labor costs."

"I favor a college education for everyone regardless of race, creed or pre - entrance intelligence quotas.

"I am for lifting everyone off the social bottom. In fact, I am for doing away with the social bottom altogether."

"I am for victory in Viet Nam without any increase in U.S. casualties or expenditures. I am also for neutralization of Viet Nam as soon as Gen. de Gaulle apologizes for having suggested it."

"I am for raising living standards of the world by deep and judicious pruning of U.S. aid."

"I am for licking the stuffing out of Khrushchev while relaxing U.S.-U.S.S.R. tensions."

"I am for supporting the European Common Market as an outlet for more American chickens and British agricultural products."

"I am for doing away with all military juntas except those we bring into power."

"I am for the independence and sovereignty of the young, immature African nations and the abandonment of the independence and sovereignty of all the old, mature European nations."

"I am for a vigorous two - party system in which my party will control the White House, all the governorships and over 75 per cent of Congress."

Did Mrs. Luce think the presidential race could afford another woman candidate?

"Actually I nominated Sen.
Margaret Chase Smith for vice president in 1952, if you remember, and I'd be delighted to vote for her if she is nominated," the blonde playwright-author said.

closing of Tuskegee High.

School officials and law en- forcement officers assumed that the 12 Negro students would show up at Natusulga and Shorter today, although the decree handed late Monday by U.S. Dist. Judge Frank M. Johnson Jr., fixed Wednesday as the deadline.

Natusulga and Shorter were the last remaining all-white high schools in Macon County where Negroes outnumber white residents 5-1. Tuskegee High was restricted to white pupils until last September when the same federal judge opened its doors to 13 Negroes.

The 250 white students from Tuskegee are attending stillsegregated public schools else- where and a private school.

In Jackson, Miss., a traffic injury to a Negro pedestrian touched off the first racial de- monstrations in that city in more than six months.

Police used tear gas and warning blasts from shotguns to break up a protest Monday night involving about 1,000 Ne- groes — many of them high school and college students.

Earlier officers had quelled a protest march by barking com- mands to disperse through bull- horns.

Three Negroes received treat- ment for superficial buckshot wounds following the second flareup on the campus of Jackson State College, a state - sup- ported all-Negro institution.

Last summer more than 1,000 Negroes were arrested during a month of demonstrations cli- maxed by the assassination of a Negro leader.

Mamie Balard, 20, of Flora, Miss., a Jackson State coed suf- fered a fractured leg late Mon- day when she was struck by a car while crossing Lynch Street, a busy thoroughfare which cuts through the campus. Witnesses said the driver was a white person.

Officers said later they had arrested the motorist, who was ticketed for failure to yield to a pedestrian. Police declined to identify the motorist.

Cleveland Race Parley Called

Solution Sought In School Fuss

CLEVELAND (AP) — Repre- sentatives of all sides in the city's school integration dispute were to meet at City Hall today in an effort to reach a settle- ment.

Mayor Ralph S. Locher called the meeting Monday night after announcing that he was calling on the Community Relations Board, which he heads, to mediate the dispute, which led to violence last week.

A few hours before the may- or's intervention in the contro- versy, the United Freedom Movement rejected a plan adopt- ed by the Board of Education at its afternoon meeting to fully integrate bus-transported Negro pupils next September. The UFM is demanding immediate integration.

The rejection was followed by the second sit-in demonstration within a week at the board's downtown headquarters. More than 60 persons led by Harold B. Williams, UFM coordinator and executive secretary of the Cleveland branch of the National Association for the Ad- vancement of Colored People, took positions in a third - floor hallway. The first sit-in there started last Friday morning and continued until Sunday night.

Williams also reaffirmed the UFM's warning announced at a rally Sunday night that school boycotts would be conducted Thursday and Friday.

Some 800 Negro pupils from the overcrowded Hazelwood Ele- mentary School for two years have been transported by bus to three other East Side schools—Brett, Memorial and Murray Hill—which have predominantly white enrollments.

The bus - transported pupils for the most part have been kept together by classes and not in- termingled with the home dis- trict pupils. Integrationists de- mand that the School Board treat the transferred pupils like the other children in the three schools and mix them in classes according to test abilities. Such a move is opposed by parents of the white children, who say they fear full integration would impair the education their chil- dren are getting.

School Strike Value Veiled

NEW YORK (AP) — A "whoopie success," said a leader of the boycott for full inte- gration of New York City's schools.

"Mostly a fizzle," said the school board president.

Both were talking about the 464,362 pupils who stayed away from school for one day Mon- day.

President James B. Donovan of the Board of Education said: "All it did was furnish an ex- cuse for kids to stay out."

Normally, 100,000 of the city's one million public school pupils stay home each day anyway be- cause of illness or other rea- sons.

Of the 43,800 public school teachers in the nation's largest school system, 3,537 — three times more than normal — also were absent. Some joined picket lines of Negroes, Puerto Ricans and others outside the schools. Children also marched on pick- et lines.

Navy Satellite Records Actions of 'Quiet Sun'

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Navy disclosed today it has se- cretly launched a satellite to monitor solar X rays and trans- mit the information to 15 na- tions during this period called the "years of the quiet sun."

The satellite may help in eventual development of a sys- tem for predicting storms on the sun which bedevil some ra- dio communications on earth and pose a threat to manned space flight.

The Navy in its announcement didn't give details on the size of the spacecraft or when it was launched but indicated it was put into orbit riding piggy-back on some other satellite.

More information is expected at a news conference later in the day.

Already, the Navy scientists reported, the satellite has de- termined that the sun is fast approaching its "minimum of activity" in its 11-year cycle of sunspot activity.

This period of relative calm should last about two years, thus the 1964-1965 period was given the scientific designation of the international years of the quiet sun.

The Navy noted that the new spacecraft is the latest in a se- ries of Navy solar-monitoring satellites. Three others were launched in 1960, 1961 and 1963 respectively but the Navy said the newcomer is now "the only active solar monitor in orbit."

In explaining the potential value of the satellite, scientists of the Naval Research Labora- tory said solar X rays and ul- traviolet rays create the iono- sphere, the region of electri- fied air at altitudes of about 50 miles which acts as a radio mirror and makes possible round-the-world short wave ra- dio communication.

Since the sun is entering a quiet phase, scientists expect to get data to be compared with information acquired during the international geophysical year in 1957-1958, which was marked by a record-breaking period of stormy solar activity.

Meanwhile, a team of opht- halmologists at Brooks Air Force Base in Texas declared an orbiting American astronaut can spy effectively on enemy territory with the unaided eye.

The paper, presented by Maj. William B. Clark, said that with proper reconnaissance training, (Continued on Page 2)

Oswald Testimony Gets Secrecy Classification

WASHINGTON (AP) — The secretly given testimony of Mrs. Marina Oswald on events preceding the assassination of President John F. Kennedy "may not be released in your lifetime," Chief Justice Earl Warren has disclosed.

Warren said the presidential investigating commission which he heads will issue a statement —perhaps Wednesday—when it finishes questioning its first witness, the slim and pretty widow of Lee Harvey Oswald.

She goes before the commis- sion again today. "I don't know how newsworthy" the commis- sion's statement will be, War- ren told reporters. He added that if it contains information affecting national security, it may be suppressed for decades —"and I say that seriously."

This suggested that the com- mission intends to explore as thoroughly as possible, through Mrs. Oswald and other witness- es, delicate subjects such as Oswald's 1959 visit to Russia.

Pretty Ohio Girl Is Johnson 'Aide'

WASHINGTON (AP) —Presi- dent Johnson has a new, and undoubtedly prettier, press se- cretary today.

She is Vickie Hixson of Col- umbus, 19-year-old sophomore at Ohio State University and part-time fashion model.

Miss Hixson, representing the Ohio Collegiate Association on World Affairs, has the unwieldy title of "honorary presidential press secretary for a day."

Miss Hixson also carries the title of Miss Politics of Ohio for '64. The purpose of the colle- giate association is to promote young people's interest in po- litical affairs.

Recently, the dog warden served notice on the Crawford- ists that Teddy Bear had nipped a child and the dog must be con- fined for 14 days. He also said Teddy Bear did not have an Ohio license and could be im- pound if caught loose.

Mrs. Crawford called Chief Warden Sidney Douglas to re- port that Teddy Bear always has had a Michigan license be- cause the dog's house is in the Billmann back yard in Michi- gan.

"That's no good in Ohio," Douglas explained. "Ohio law states that if you own, keep or harbor a dog in Ohio, you must have an Ohio license."

Trooper Shoots Down Dangling Power Lines

KENT, Wash. (AP) — State trooper Darrell Bailey wasn't about to wait for power com- pany crews to remove live wires over a wrecked automo- bile in which an injured motor- ist was trapped.

Bailey pulled out his service shotgun, severed the wires with a blast, and rescued the motor- ist.

his unsuccessful effort to de- feat the Soviet Union and his attempts, on a Mexican visit last September, to obtain visas for Russia or Cuba.

But Monday's day-long ques- tioning of the Russian-born, 22-year-old Mrs. Oswald—who be- lieves her Marxist husband as- sassinated Kennedy — dealt with Oswald's activity and movements in the United States, after he brought his bride here.

This was reported by the commission's general counsel, J. Lee Rankin, during a break in the laborious testimony-tak- ing through a State Department interpreter.

"Mrs. Oswald told us some things we hadn't heard before— some new things, new evi- dence," Rankin told question- ers. He said she was "a very cooperative witness."

Warren declined to confirm Rankin's reference to "new evi- dence" when reporters inter- cepted him leaving the commis- sion's offices later. "I would not comment on a witness' tes- timony in the middle of it," the chief justice said.

In the area of testimony men- tioned by Rankin, the question- ing presumably covered the source of the money which paid for Oswald's travels, his pur- chase of the mail-order rifle which Texas authorities say killed Kennedy, and any possi- ble link between Oswald and Jack Ruby.

Ruby, a Dallas nightclub own- er, shot Oswald to death in a Dallas police headquarters on Nov. 24, two days after the as- sassin.

Southwest Is Crippled By Snows

AMARILLO, Tex. (AP) — A blinding, blizzard-like snow- storm isolated many Texas and New Mexico communities today causing at least three deaths, and whipping up drifts as deep as seven feet.

The snow, mixed in some spots with hard rains, covered much of Oklahoma, eastern New Mexico, and knifed deep into west central Texas.

Near-blizzard conditions pre- vailed over most of the Texas Panhandle with 17 inches of snow at Borger and 14 inches at Spearman.

Only a few vehicles were able to negotiate U.S. Highway 66 west of Amarillo. The Texas Highway Patrol urged all resi- dents not to attempt travel.

A Greyhound bus skidded off U.S. 66 Monday night but all 26 passengers were safe. The driver kept the motor and heaters running until towing units could arrive by daylight from nearby San Jon, N.M.

Thousands of stranded travel- ers jammed hotels and motels in the areas.

Around Amarillo, heart of the Texas Panhandle, farmers and ranchers were jubilant at the prospect of another day of the howling weather. They called it "a million-dollar snow" and said the spring wheat crops would benefit tremendously.

A wheat farmer from Perryton, Tex., C. Douglas Smith, said the snow was moist and clinging—the best kind. "All we need is more of it."

Amarillo's major arteries to Oklahoma, New Mexico, Colora- do and the interior of Texas were closed by midnight. The airport closed Monday after- noon with visibility of less than one-eighth of a mile.

Duplicate Ranger Voyage Planned

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — Plans to send a duplicate Ranger moon vehicle on a simulated voyage in space were under way today in an effort to find what went wrong with the probe's television eyes.

The duplicate vehicle would, under laboratory conditions, fol- low as closely as possible Rang- er 6's flight, perhaps pinpointing the reason for failure of the vehicle's photographic system.

Jet Propulsion Labora- tory spokesmen said that unless the problem is located, the flight of Ranger 7, scheduled for later this month, might have to be postponed.

Despite the failure of the cam- era system, experts insisted Monday that Ranger 6 impacted in the moon's Sea of Tranquility.

'Platform' Needles Pros

NEW YORK (AP) — Clare Boothe Luce took dead aim at the 1964 crop of presidential candidates today and unleashed a platform to end presidential platforms.

It was strictly tongue in cheek —or dagger in cheek.

The former Republican con- gresswoman and one - time am- bassador to Italy said in an in- terview: "I'd enter the New Hampshire primary in a min- ute if I had a campaign man- ager, an organization and a po- litical base. I've certainly got the program."

The program? "I am for the 35 - hour week without any increase in labor costs."

"I favor a college education for everyone regardless of race, creed or pre - entrance intelli- gence quotas.

"I am for lifting everyone off the social bottom. In fact, I am for doing away with the social bottom altogether."

"I am for victory in Viet Nam without any increase in U.S. casualties or expenditures. I am also for neutralization of Viet Nam as soon as Gen. de Gaulle apologizes for having suggested it."

"I am for raising living stand- ards of the world by deep and judicious pruning of U.S. aid."

"I am for licking the stuffing out of Khrushchev while relax- ing U.S.-S.S.R. tensions."

"I am for supporting the Eu- ropean Common Market as an outlet for more American chick- ens and British agricultural products."

"I am for doing away with all military juntas except those we bring into power."

I am for the independence and sovereignty of the young, immature African nations and the abandonment of the inde- pendence and sovereignty of all the old, mature European na- tions."

"I am for a vigorous two - party system in which my party will control the White House, all the governorships and over 75 per cent of Congress."

Did Mrs. Luce think the presi- dential race could afford another woman candidate?

"Actually I nominated Sen. Margaret Chase Smith for vice president in 1952, if you remem- ber, and I'd be delighted to vote for her if she is nominated," the blonde playwright-author said.

News of World in Brief

MISENHEIMER, N.C. (AP)—Richard M. Nixon says Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev is "without qualification the most able all-around world leader today," but he didn't include President Johnson in the comparison.

"He (Khrushchev) is not the most admirable; he is not the most brainy — De Gaulle gets that spot," said Nixon, "but he has a steel-like determination."

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — The coroner's report on Alan Ladd's death was terse, clinical and cold.

The report, issued Monday by the Riverside County coroner listed the cause of Ladd's death last Wednesday as cerebral edema—a swelling of the brain by fluids. Said Coroner James S. Bird in his report:

"The case will be signed out as an accidental death. The combination of alcohol, seconal, Librium and Sparine produced together the total effects the depressants had on the central nervous system with the high level of alcohol being the major factor."

Seconal is a barbiturate; Librium a tranquilizer and Sparine a drug that quiets the central nervous system.

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet Union has accused West Germany of developing military rockets capable of carrying nuclear weapons.

In a protest to the United States, Britain, France and West Germany, the Kremlin said the alleged rocket development was in "gross violation" of the limitations placed on Germany by the unconditional surrender after World War II.

The Soviet note disputed the West German government's statement in December that the rockets were for weather purposes.

WIESBADEN, Germany (AP)—The U.S. Air Force has begun a piece-by-piece examination of the wreckage of an Air Force jet trainer shot down over Communist East Germany last Tuesday.

The remaining parts are being laid out in a hangar at the Wiesbaden air base to reconstruct as far as possible the plane's original shape. An Air Force spokesman said there would be no statement until the study is completed.

Three U.S. officers were killed when the plane was downed 56 miles inside East Germany.

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Actress Ann-Margret hit actor James Ward on the head with a bottle and sent Ward to the hospital with a concussion.

It happened in a movie brawl scene. The bottle, made of a clear candy-like material, breaks easily on impact, if used correctly.

But Ann-Margret hit Ward with the butt end of the bottle. Next on her schedule: Lessons in how to hit with the bottle.

WASHINGTON (AP) — William E. Stevenson has been asked to continue as U.S. ambassador to the Philippines because of the unstable situation in Southeast Asia.

The White House announced Monday that Stevenson had agreed to stay on at President Johnson's request.

Stevenson submitted his resignation last month.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Quote of the day: Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson, speaking to 400 college editors who visited the White House, recalled she had studied journalism in college, then drew a laugh when she added: "However, someone came between me and a permanent newspaper job."

Local Doctor Candidate for Legislature

A Circleville medical doctor has entered the contest for Democratic nomination as Pickaway County's representative to the State Legislature.

Dr. Walter F. Heine, 109 E. Mound St., has declared himself a candidate for the nomination by filing petitions with the County Board of Elections. He is the fourth person to seek the nomination in this year's primary. Others are Paul Peck, Perry Twp.; Gene Tosca, Ashville; and Roy Huffer Jr., Route 3.

He was born near Columbus and is the second oldest of 11 children. He received his BA degree from Ohio Wesleyan University and his medical degree from Ohio State University. He is also a graduate of the U. S. Army Medical School, Washington D. C.

DR. WALTER F. HEINE

Dr. Heine served in both World War I and World War II and was surgeon of the Fourth Air Force Replacement Center at Fresno, Calif. He helped establish the hospitals in the new Lowery Air Field at Denver, Colo. and the AFB at Fresno, Calif.

FOLLOWING retirement from the U. S. Army with the rank of lieutenant colonel, he came to Circleville and was engaged in general practice until July 1, 1959 at which time he accepted a position with the Medical Examiner for the Bureau of Women's Compensation, Columbus, where he is currently employed.

He is a former member of the Circleville Rotary Club and helped organize the CHS Booster Club, serving as its first president. He was chairman of the Heart Fund Drive in its beginning years ago in Pickaway County.

200 License Tags 'Lost' in Mails

OLEAN, N.Y. (AP) — Postal officials here face the ire of 200 motorists and a case of missing license plates.

The motorists' 1964 plates were mailed from the Cattaraugus County Motor Vehicle Bureau at Little Valley last week, a spokesman said Monday.

They have not arrived. Police warned motorists they would be arrested if they operated automobiles with 1963 plates, which expired last Friday midnight.

A post office spokesman said efforts were being made to trace the missing plates.

Many of the plateless motorists are walking.

Draft Horse Sale Opens in London

LONDON, Ohio (AP) — The second annual Eastern States Draft Horse Sale opened its two-day stay at the Madison County Fairgrounds today. Ninety draft horses are for sale.

Former Ohio Supreme Court Judge James Bell will be the main speaker tonight at the sale's banquet.

LARGE AUDIENCE — Here is a portion of the more than 200 persons who listened to philosopher-farmer Henry Schriver deliver the keynote address at yesterday's Farm City Forum. The event was held at the Fairgrounds 4-H and Grange Building. A similar session is planned for next year, under sponsorship of the local Farm Bureau. (Photo by Beaver Studio)

Termed a strong supporter of farm organizations, he classified "working together" as being as "modern as tomorrow." With this concept in mind, he congratulated the local Farm Bureau and all guests present for promoting a project such as the Farm City Forum.

THE MAN of the soil claimed one of his primary aims as a speaker is to promote the image of agriculture through understanding. He said farm organization is one of the best methods at hand.

Indicating that all is not well on the farm today, Schriver advocated "getting politics out of agriculture" as a possible cure. He defined farmers as being people who in too many cases foot the bills in which other concerns reap the benefits.

The speaker outlined the need for a strong Farm Bureau Federation and referred to functions of such organizations as being "democracy in action."

At the close of the session, Farm Bureau officials noted that plans will be pushed for holding a similar Farm City Forum next year.

Woman Thug Pleads Guilty

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP)—"I'm guilty," said the 20-year-old pregnant but unmarried defendant in a first-degree murder case.

"I ask that remark be stricken your honor. I don't think the girl is responsible at this time," interjected one of her court-appointed lawyers.

"I said guilty," Carla Leach of Columbus, Ohio, insisted. Judge Charles J. Gaughan of Erie County Court ruled that the arraignment Monday be adjourned to next Monday.

Miss Leach and Robert L. Hayes, 37, of Columbus will be expected to make formal pleas at that time in the Jan. 22 fatal shooting of John Johnkins, 33. Police say Miss Leach shot the deaf Johnkins during a $75 tavern robbery when he failed to respond to her order to lie on the floor.

Lausche Turns Down Capital Tax Relief

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Frank J. Lausche, D-Ohio, voted with the majority as the Senate del'ed from the House-passed tax cut legislation a proposed reduction in capital tax rates on assets held longer than two years.

The 56-25 vote Monday sustained the recommendation of the Senate Finance Committee.

Navy . . .

"Specific definition of man's maximum visual capabilities in space will be one of the most militarily significant achievements in future orbital flights," the paper said.

The report leaned heavily on the remarkable accounts given by Maj. Leroy Gordon Cooper Jr. after his 22-orbit flight last May.

Cooper said he clearly saw houses and streets in the Himalaya mountains, on the plains of Tibet and in the southwesterly United States. He said he sighted a vehicle moving on a road, a boat on a river and a steam locomotive on a track.

Some doctors doubted Cooper. They said such sighting from his altitude was beyond the capability of the human eye. Some said the astronaut must have suffered hallucinations.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration assigned a five-man team of experts to determine if Cooper did see objects on earth with such clarity. It concluded that he did.

The ophthalmologist paper concurred.

"When we speak of seeing," it said, "We are talking about a complex process which involves intellect and experience as well as optics. We can recognize close friends at greater distances than casual acquaintances. We make this recognition on the basis of imaged clues with which we have become familiar at closer range. 'Major Cooper saw things from orbit in this same way,' the paper continued.

MISENHEIMER, N.C. (AP)—Richard M. Nixon says Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev is "without qualification the most able all-around world leader today," but he didn't include President Johnson in the comparison.

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — The coroner's report on Alan Ladd's death was terse, clinical and cold.

The report, issued Monday by the Riverside County coroner listed the cause of Ladd's death last Wednesday as cerebral edema—a swelling of the brain by fluids. Said Coroner James S. Bird in his report:

"The case will be signed out as an accidental death. The combination of alcohol, seconal, Librium and Sparine produced together the total effects the depressants had on the central nervous system with the high level of alcohol being the major factor."

Seconal is a barbiturate; Librium a tranquilizer and Sparine a drug that quiets the central nervous system.

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet Union has accused West Germany of developing military rockets capable of carrying nuclear weapons.

In a protest to the United States, Britain, France and West Germany, the Kremlin said the alleged rocket development was in "gross violation" of the limitations placed on Germany by the unconditional surrender after World War II.

The Soviet note disputed the West German government's statement in December that the rockets were for weather purposes.

WIESBADEN, Germany (AP) —The U.S. Air Force has begun a piece-by-piece examination of the wreckage of an Air Force jet trainer shot down over Communist East Germany last Tuesday.

The remaining parts are being laid out in a hangar at the Wiesbaden air base to reconstruct as far as possible the plane's original shape. An Air Force spokesman said there would be no statement until the study is completed.

Three U.S. officers were killed when the plane was downed 56 miles inside East Germany.

The White House announced Monday that Stevenson had agreed to stay on at President Johnson's request.

Stevenson submitted his resignation last month.

200 License Tags 'Lost' in Mails

A post office spokesman said efforts were being made to trace the missing plates. Many of the plateless motorists are walking.

Draft Horse Sale Opens in London

LONDON, Ohio (AP) — The second annual Eastern States Draft Horse Sale opened its two-day stay at the Madison County Fairgrounds today. Ninety draft horses are for sale.

Former Ohio Supreme Court Judge James Bell will be the main speaker tonight at the sale's banquet.

LARGE AUDIENCE — Here is a portion of the more than 200 persons who listened to philosopher-farmer Henry Schriver deliver the keynote address at yesterday's Farm City Forum. The event was held at the Fairgrounds 4-H and Grange Building. A similar session is planned for next year, under sponsorship of the local Farm Bureau. (Photo by Beaver Studio)

Farm . . .

Termed a strong supporter of farm organizations, he classified "working together" as being as "modern as tomorrow." With this concept in mind, he congratulated the local Farm Bureau and all guests present for promoting a project such as the Farm City Forum.

THE MAN of the soil claimed one of his primary aims as a speaker is to promote the image of agriculture through understanding. He said farm organization is one of the best methods at hand.

Indicating that all is not well on the farm today, Schriver advocated "getting politics out of agriculture" as a possible cure. He defined farmers as being people who in too many cases foot the bills in which other concerns reap the benefits.

The speaker outlined the need for a strong Farm Bureau Federation and referred to functions of such organizations as being "democracy in action."

At the close of the session, Farm Bureau officials noted that plans will be pushed for holding a similar Farm City Forum next year.

Woman Thug Pleads Guilty

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP)—"I'm guilty," said the 20-year-old pregnant but unmarried defendant in a first-degree murder case.

"I ask that remark be stricken from my honor. I don't think the girl is responsible at this time," interjected one of her court-appointed lawyers.

"I said guilty," Carla Leach of Columbus, Ohio, insisted. Judge Charles J. Gaughan of Erie County Court ruled that the arraignment Monday be adjourned to next Monday.

Miss Leach and Robert L. Hayes, 37, of Columbus will be expected to make formal pleas at that time in the Jan. 22 fatal shooting of John Johnkins, 33. Police say Miss Leach shot the deaf Johnkins during a $75 tavern robbery when he failed to respond to her order to lie on the floor.

Lausche Turns Down Capital Tax Relief

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Frank J. Lausche, D-Ohio, voted with the majority as the Senate del'ed from the House-passed tax cut legislation a proposed reduction in capital tax rates on assets held longer than two years.

The 56-25 vote Monday sustained the recommendation of the Senate Finance Committee.

Navy . . .

"Specific definition of man's maximum visual capabilities in space will be one of the most militarily significant achievements in future orbital flights," the paper said.

The report leaned heavily on the remarkable accounts given by Maj. Leroy Gordon Cooper Jr. after his 22-orbit flight last May.

Cooper said he clearly saw houses and streets in the Himalaya mountains, on the plains of Tibet and in the southwesterly United States. He said he sighted a vehicle moving on a road, a boat on a river and a steam locomotive on a track.

Some doctors doubted Cooper. They said such sighting from his altitude was beyond the capability of the human eye. Some said the astronaut must have suffered hallucinations.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration assigned a five-man team of experts to determine if Cooper did see objects on earth with such clarity. It concluded that he did.

The ophthalmologist paper concurred.

"When we speak of seeing," it said, "We are talking about a complex process which involves intellect and experience as well as optics. We can recognize close friends at greater distances than casual acquaintances. We make this recognition on the basis of imaged clues with which we have become familiar at closer range. Major Cooper saw things from orbit in this same way," the paper continued.

Speculative Activity in Stocks Eyed

NEW YORK (AP)—Return of the public to the stock market after its fright back in the 1962 crash is seen by many in the rise in speculative activity. But it is the same kind of individual who bought stocks a few years back?

Some glamour stocks have been getting a big ride reminiscent of the flush days of 1961. Trading volume has been heavy on many days this month.

But whether the activity of individuals traders, as distinct from the many institutions that play an ever more important role in the market, is for in-and-out speculation or for relatively long term investment is a question.

The big jump in the number of individual Americans who own stocks that marked the previous four years seems to have slowed markedly in 1963. The role of the institutions as owners goes on increasing.

Some top-name corporations, traditional choice of the long-term investor, have seen the number of individual stockholders decline in the last 12 or 18 months. Others have seen the long advance in numbers slacken.

Many of the stock splits announced in recent weeks have frankly named as a reason the desire to bring shareprices into the reach of more people to widen the ownership. The move to make stock acquisition easy and attractive for employees also is spreading among corporations.

Stockholders are potential customers for and advertisers of a company's products. Also, wide ownership makes for stability, narrows the opportunity for a take-over raid by one clique or an outsider. Large shareowner rolls tend to make future corporate financing easier.

Corporate executives usually deny domination by the institutions—pension funds, bank trustees, insurance companies, mutual funds—whose ever swelling piles of cash to invest have spurred their stock purchasing.

But the role of institutional traders in the stock market itself is closely watched by federal regulatory agencies and exchange officials alike. And the part they play or could play in corporate affairs is also of interest to individual stockowners, big and little, and to corporate management.

Sampling surveys have indicated that the number of individual stockholders swelled since World War II to as high as 17 million.

Church Urged To Play Role in Controversies

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Those who counsel the church to stay away from the controversial issues are asking it to betray its calling, the keynote speaker at the first National Study Conference on Church and State said today.

The church is under pressure from within and without to "play it safe and keep it peaceful," the Rev. David G. Colwell told some 450 delegates in a sermon prepared for opening the Protestant conference. It continues through Friday, under the auspices of the National Council of Churches. The Rev. Mr. Colwell is pastor of the First Congregational United Church of Christ in Washington, D.C.

He said problems such as housing, employment, medical care for the aged and aid to education "are always the real issues of life."

Some instruments of government and public institutions have helped God "reach the world sometimes in spite of the lethargy and fear of his church," the minister said.

The Rev. Mr. Colwell commended "the instruments of government that have moved where the church has bogged down, and sought justice where the church has defended the status quo."

"We must confess," he said, "that the church is a late and reluctant starter in the run for full rights for the Negro."

He also chided churches which "dragged their feet and protested when the Supreme Court ruled that it is not the business of the public school to conduct devotions."

The Rev. Dr. Eugene Carson Blake of Philadelphia, stated clerk of the United Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A. and chairman of the conference, told delegates the purpose of this meeting.

He explained that the National Council of Churches wanted to bring together a body of representative churchmen and selected experts to study problems on church-state relations "and to offer the best advice we can on this serious and timely problem."

The Rev. Dr. Blake said this covers such areas as government aid to church schools, recent decisions by the Supreme Court on use of prayers and the Bible in public schools, and "the alleged 'social' establishment of religion in general in America."

He outlined two "oversimplified" questions summing up the issues to be studied:

"First, should government affirm the religious heritage and convictions of the people?"

"Second, should government assist or support the church-related institutions of education and welfare which contribute to the general good?"

UofC Cage Player Held For Assault

CINCINNATI (AP)—John Serbin of Hammond, Ind., a university of Cincinnati varsity basketball player, was charged in court here Monday with assault and battery on a UC coed but his case was continued until Feb. 12.

The girl was identified as Carol Ann Schleinitz, 19, of Cincinnati. Patrolman Charles Greenert said he learned Serbin, also 19, and Miss Schleinitz had a date Sunday night after the Cincinnati team returned from a two-game road trip and that they took some beer and went to another student's apartment, presumably to talk about marriage.

Greenert said the couple got into an argument and Serbin was charged with hitting the girl. She suffered blackened eyes and bruises and was treated at a hospital and released.

Serbin was arrested several hours later and released under $300 bond. In court today he said he didn't know why he did it.

"The whole team has been under a lot of pressure," he said.

Serbin, a 6-foot-6 sophomore who weighs 220, was an outstanding football and basketball player at Hammond high school. Last year he was voted the most valuable player on UC's freshman team, averaging 21.4 points a game.

He has not been a regular starter with the Bearcat varsity this season but has seen considerable action.

Penn Station In Ruins Now

Wreckers Erase Famed Landmark

NEW YORK (AP)—From the lofty ceiling debris falls. Sunlight molded into shafts by 14 granite columns at the north entrance of Pennsylvania Station filters through the dust.

The scene resembles a Roman ruin. In one sense, it is. The stately station was patterned after the Roman baths of Caracalla and built partly with fine marble imported from Italy.

Now it is falling before the wrecker's hammer. The destruction, begun Oct. 28, is to make way for a new Madison Square Garden and a new station.

Spidery scaffolding veils the north entrance and screens the huge exterior clock flanked by statues of two women and two eagles. Motionless hands point to 6:49.

This is about all that the 200,000 passengers who pass through Penn Station each day can see of the destruction now. Soon, however, more of the pedestrianways will be re-routed.

The 550 daily trains will continue to run, shuttling passengers into and out of New York City on underground tracks. And the new sports arena and companion office building will begin to rise long before the demolition ends.

Completion of the project is scheduled for 1966.

The station was designed by Stanford White's architectural firm and formally opened in 1910.

Its nine-acre site is bounded by 31st and 33rd streets and Seventh and Eighth Avenues.

The new station will occupy the street and subterranean levels of the new $100-million complex which features a 22,000-seat arena, 4,000-seat amphitheatre and twin-towered 33-story skyscraper.

Sammie The Starling Commands Fighter Plane

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—Sammie the Starling was fighting for his life early today, waging a cold, lonely battle for survival inside the cockpit of a World War II fighter plane.

The scene was the Air Force Museum at Wright Patterson Air Force Base.

Sammie's curiosity got him on the spot, and his shyness kept him from an early rescue when he hid from a policeman who tried to save him.

How he got inside the P63 Kingcobra, locked tightly on the museum grounds, was a mystery.

Somehow Sammie must have crawled through one of the air vents leading to the cockpit of the Kingcobra. Once there, he couldn't find his way out, and won't get out unless someone helps him.

Noticing the bird's furious fluttering inside his glass and metal prison Monday, sightseers called an Air Force captain over. "I'll get someone from the museum to let him out," said the captain.

He went inside the museum building and returned in a few minutes.

"They'll be out with a key in a few minutes," he said.

But "they" didn't appear. Sammie continued to flutter, the spectators continued to speculate, and the day began to wane.

A policeman drove up in a big Air Force truck. Then someone pointed out the bird, the policeman went into the museum building and emerged several minutes later with a key.

"This ought to do it," he said with a grin. His grin turned to a groan, however, when he opened the door of the fighter. No Sammie. A teen-ager wandering by crawled into the cockpit. There was a tiny hole leading from the rear of the cockpit.

"He must have gone back there, but I can't feel anything in the hole," he said.

Convinced that Sammie must have gone out the way he had come in, he locked the cockpit again. The policeman drove away, and a small crowd dispersed.

A few moments later, however, Sammie was back again. As darkness fell, Sammie, the lonely starling, was still sitting rigidly atop the pilot's seat.

OU Launches TV Series

ATHENS, Ohio (AP)—The first home-produced presentation of the Ohio Educational Television Network made its debut Monday on Ohio University's WOUB-TV.

The show was "Energy Conversion," first of a six-part science series to be shown on educational TV stations around the state. It was prepared by Battelle Memorial Institute of Columbus and WLWC-TV, Columbus.

The production is aimed at viewers of all ages.

Bud Gillis of Columbus, executive secretary of the Ohio Educational Television Network Commission, said this venture makes Ohio unique in combining commercial and educational video with private research.

Church Books Jazz Music

Cincy Pastor Defends Views

CINCINNATI (AP)—A Cincinnati minister is so convinced that jazz music is a unique art form with "seriously religious" dimensions that he will make it part of his service Sunday.

The minister is the Rev. Standrod T. Carmichael, serving at the Indiana Hill Christ Episcopal Church while the regular minister, the Rev. Luther Tucker, is on a year's sabbatical leave.

Canon Carmichael's composition, "Music for the Liturgy, 1961," popularly known as a "Jazz Mass" will be presented at Christ Church with the approval of the Department of Evangelism of the Episcopal Diocese of Southern Ohio.

"Jazz is life and world affirming," said Canon Carmichael. It embraces the whole of life with its heights and its depths; the moments of highest joy and hope; times of bluest grief and darkest despair."

Jazz, the clergy-composer added, expresses the entire range of experiences and emotions of man, "tenderness and harshness confidence and frustration, serenity and turbulence, order within seeming disorder, love and betrayal, infinite variety and throbbing monotony; elation and despondency, delight inter-fused with sorrow."

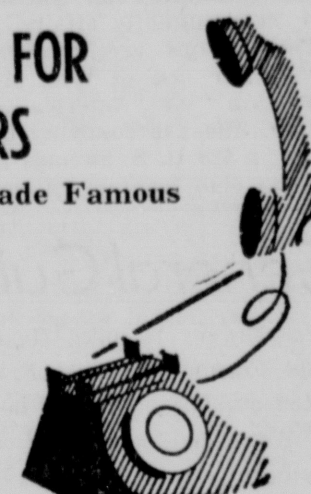

Continuing his argument for jazz in church, Canon Carmichael said that in each succeeding age people have expressed their worship of God "in their songs, using the instruments and the musical forms of their own times."

Sammie The Starling Commands Fighter Plane

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—Sammie the Starling was fighting for his life early today, waging a cold, lonely battle for survival inside the cockpit of a World War II fighter plane.

The scene was the Air Force Museum at Wright Patterson Air Force Base.

Sammie's curiosity got him on the spot, and his shyness kept him from an early rescue when he hid from a policeman who tried to save him.

How he got inside the P63 Kingcobra, locked tightly on the museum grounds, was a mystery.

Somehow Sammie must have crawled through one of the air vents leading to the cockpit of the Kingcobra. Once there, he couldn't find his way out, and won't get out unless someone helps him.

Noticing the bird's furious fluttering inside his glass and metal prison Monday, sightseers called an Air Force captain over. "I'll get someone from the museum to let him out," said the captain.

He went inside the museum building and returned in a few minutes.

"They'll be out with a key in a few minutes," he said.

But "they" didn't appear. Sammie continued to flutter, the spectators continued to speculate, and the day began to wane.

A policeman drove up in a big Air Force truck, then someone pointed out the bird, the police man went into the museum building and emerged several minutes later with a key.

"This ought to do it," he said with a grin.

His grin turned to a groan, however, when he opened the door of the fighter. No Sammie. A teen-ager wandering by crawled into the cockpit. There was a tiny hole leading from the rear of the cockpit.

"He must have gone back there, but I can't feel anything in the hole," he said.

Convinced that Sammie must have gone out the way he had come in, he locked the cockpit again. The policeman drove away, and a small crowd dispersed.

A few moments later, however, Sammie was back again. As darkness fell, Sammie, the lonely starling, was still sitting rigidly atop the pilot's seat.

OU Launches TV Series

ATHENS, Ohio (AP)—The first home-produced presentation of the Ohio Educational Television Network made its debut Monday on Ohio University's WOUB-TV.

The show was "Energy Conversion," first of a six-part science series to be shown on educational TV stations around the state. It was prepared by Battelle Memorial Institute of Columbus and WLW-TV, Columbus.

The production is aimed at viewers of all ages.

Bud Gillis of Columbus, executive secretary of the Ohio Educational Television Network Commission, said this venture makes Ohio unique in combining commercial and educational video with private research.

Church Books Jazz Music

Cincy Pastor Defends Views

CINCINNATI (AP)—A Cincinnati minister is so convinced that jazz music is a unique art form with "seriously religious" dimensions that he will make it part of his service Sunday.

The minister is the Rev. Stan-drod T. Carmichael, serving at the Indiana Hill Christ Episcopal Church while the regular minister, the Rev. Luther Tucker, is on a year's sabbatical leave.

Canon Carmichael's composition, "Music for the Liturgy, 1961," popularly known as a "Jazz Mass" will be presented at Christ Church with the approval of the Department of Evangelism of the Episcopal Diocese of Southern Ohio.

"Jazz is life and world affirming," said Canon Carmichael. It embraces the whole of life with its heights and its depths; the moments of highest joy and hope; times of deepest grief and darkest despair."

Jazz, the clergy-composer added, expresses the entire range of experiences and emotions of man, "tenderness and harshness confidence and frustration, serenity and turbulence, order within seeming disorder, love and betrayal, infinite variety and throbbing monotony; elation and despondency, delight inter-fused with sorrow."

Continuing his argument for jazz in church, Canon Carmichael said that in each succeeding age people have expressed their worship of God "in their songs, using the instruments and the musical forms of their own times."

Annual Mrs. America Contest Is Announced

G. Ninde Lawson, Circleville manager of Columbia Gas of Ohio, Inc., announced today that application blanks for the 1964 "Mrs. America" contest are available at the gas company office, 134 N. Court St.

The contest, to select the nation's outstanding homemaker, is sponsored in this area by Columbia of Ohio.

Competition will progress through local, division and district levels toward the naming of a new "Mrs. Ohio" who will represent the state at the "Mrs. America" national finals, to be held in St. Petersburg, Fla., April 12-13.

Lawson said the completed application forms should be returned to the gas company office by mail not later than midnight, Feb. 22. Married women 21 years of age and older are eligible to enter. Gas company employees and members of their immediate families are not eligible.

Winners in local area communities will advance to a division contest, which will be held in Columbus. Division winners in this area will compete in a district cook-off to be held in Columbus. "Mrs. Ohio" will be selected in the state finals of the contest scheduled for Columbus in March.

Not a beauty contest, the "Mrs. America" event has become famed for its annual selection of the nation's most representative homemaker. At all levels, judging is on the basis of good grooming and participation in community affairs.

Club groups are encouraged to sponsor one of their members as a "Mrs. America" candidate. The gas company is offering a $25 U. S. Savings bond for the club treasury of an organization sponsoring a member who wins a division title, $50 bond for the club sponsoring a district winner, $100 bond for a state winner and $500 bond for the club sponsoring a member who becomes "Mrs. America." Prizes will be awarded winners at all levels, the gas company manager here announced. District contest winners will receive a Gold Star Award automatic gas range plus the trip to Columbus for the state contest. The runner-up in each district will be awarded a gas lamp, installed at home. Other prizes from the local level upward, include pieces of Gorham silver, sets of new gas candles and newly designed "Diamond Look" tiaras.

The woman named "Mrs. Ohio" will win an expense-paid trip for herself and her husband to the national finals at St. Petersburg, where she will compete with 50 other finalists, representing 50 states and the District of Columbia.

In addition to the 10-day trip to Florida, "Mrs. Ohio" and the other contestants and their husbands will stay at the luxurious Soreno Hotel and enjoy special membership privileges at both the Sunset Golf and Country Club and the Bath Club.

The new "Mrs. America" will receive a week's vacation for herself and her husband on the island of Curacao, a complete fashion wardrobe including coats, suits, daytime and after-five dresses, gas appliances, $500 in cash and a free trip to the New York World's Fair for the entire family. In all, more than $30,000 in prizes will go to the national winner.

National finals at St. Petersburg will be held in conjunction with that city's annual Festival of States.

General Guild Holds Forum

The Berger Hospital General Guild Forum was held Friday in the guild room at the hospital. A new guild comprised of 15 members was welcomed. Mrs. Robert Wellington is chairman of this guild No. 44.

Mrs. Kenneth Luna, president discussed needs for the new maternity wing and reminded guilds that the annual gift is due by April. Reports on the Christmas Bazaar were given by Mrs. William Stout and Mrs. William Blanton, who suggested the possibility of one guild taking on the entire responsibility for managing the Bazaar this year.

Mrs. Robert Ransom, first vice president, reported that a Gift Shop Guild, composed of members who will work on the operation of the Gift Shop only, is being proposed. This is to be set up by April 1 and is open to any guild member or non-guild member who is interested. The guild will only meet when necessary and for the first year will be headed by the Gift Shop committee. Eventually this guild will take over the entire gift shop operation. Anyone interested in joining this guild should call Mrs. Robert Ransom, GR 4-5111, or Mrs. George Young, GR 4-3820.

Mrs. George Young, Gift Shop committee, reported that the successful Silver Tea and Holiday Gift Shop Show is proposed as an annual event. It is hoped that the Gift Shop can be open on Friday and Saturday mornings if enough workers can be obtained.

Mrs. C. K. Vaughan was appointed chairman of the nominating committee. Mrs. Lawrence Johnson and Mrs. Wayne

Dear Abby: Time Has Flown!

DEAR ABBY: A year ago last November my daughter was married in Las Vegas. She was four months along then, but, to save face, we told everybody she had been secretly married in June, right after her high school graduation. Her husband was in the Army but was able to get a 10-day emergency leave at that time. Now he won't be able to come home again until he is discharged in October, when our grandson will be a year and a half old. Everything happened so fast there wasn't time for showers or even a wedding reception. The kids will have to start house-keeping from scratch and they don't have a thing. Would it be proper to give them a big shower-type wedding reception when her husband gets back?

WONDERING
DEAR WONDERING: You may honor the couple with a "party," but I wouldn't recommend a "shower-type wedding reception" for parents of a one-and-a-half-year-old child.

DEAR ABBY: Recently our son brought a girl to our home so we could meet her. He is probably serious about her because he never brought a girl home for us to meet before. Well, that boy could not sit down without this girl plopping herself on his lap. She always had to be holding his hand, smoothing his hair and she would not let him out of her sight for one minute. We tried hard to like her, Abby, but she was disgusting! Our son is a college junior and so is she. If

Logan Elm Tutors Turn Archeologists

ARCHEOLOGISTS — Dow West, left, and Harold Povenmire, Logan Elm School District teachers, scrutinize fragments of carbon. The material was unearthed when they excavated an Indian Mound on the Kenneth Cooper farm east of the Saltcreek Twp. school on the South Perry Road.

By STEVE JONES

A pair of teachers in the Logan Elm School district have turned into amateur archeologists. They are Harold Povenmire, seventh grade teacher at Saltcreek Twp., and Dow West, who teaches at Logan Elm High School.

The tutors are exploring an Indian burial mound on the Kenneth Cooper farm in Saltcreek Twp.

Mr. and Mrs. Cooper and their two older children, Dan and Peggy, are enthusiastic helpers in the project.

Permission to probe the mound was granted by Cooper. Dr. Raymond Baby, curator of archeology at Ohio State University, has asked them to keep a written and photographic record of their discoveries if possible.

THEIR first step in the probe was to determine whether the mound was actually of Indian origin or if it could be glacial deposited.

How Weather Looks Today

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Official Weather Bureau summary of Ohio's weather:

Clear, frosty weather was general over Ohio early today as a high pressure area settled over the state.

Early morning temperatures were as low as 8 at Zanesville, 9 at Columbus and 12 at Youngstown.

Fair skies were expected today with afternoon temperatures reaching the 30s and lower 40s, winds were forecast to be light and variable.

Clear skies will continue tonight but temperatures will be slightly higher than Monday night's.

Cloudiness will begin to increase Wednesday, especially in the southern counties, but no precipitation is expected. Temperatures will reach the 40s and lower 50s Wednesday.

PTA Board To Meet

The executive board of Atwater PTA will meet 10 a. m. Thursday in the home of Mrs. Robert Hendricks, 1064 Georgia Road.

The sides of the mound slope very gently, and it is not too high. Cooper has no trouble cultivating the area with modern farm equipment.

However, the initial discovery of small bits of carbon and shells soon indicated it was, in fact, an Indian mound. One nearly complete skeleton has been found in the mound. And in the midst of the human bones an arrow head was discovered. Povenmire surmised the person might possibly have been killed by the arrow.

At a deeper depth, approximately four feet, the teachers found a group of bones which appeared to have been burned. They were able to identify several pieces of human skull, and a number of other bones. The bones were piled in an area about two feet in diameter and were about six inches in depth.

ALTHOUGH winter weather has halted the mound probing, Povenmire and West plan to continue when the temperature becomes milder.

Povenmire has had a long term interest in archeology and geology since his childhood. He is very much enthused with the exploratory project. Kenneth Cooper, who has farmed the field where the mound is located for several years, says crops have seldom flourished on the mound itself, although the remainder of the tract is fairly productive.

And he noted this meager production has continued throughout several years in spite of special applications of fertilizers to the mound itself.

Povenmire and West were both biological science majors in college. However, they had a smattering of archeology in geology courses at Ohio State.

Povenmire feels there are many mounds, such as the one they are currently probing, which have never been excavated.

THEY HAVE plans to probe other mounds in Saltcreek Twp. to determine their origin.

An effigy mound, the Tarlton Cross mound, is located about four miles from the Cooper farm. There are a number of known Indian mounds in the Saltcreek Valley.

Health Nurse Lists Report For 2 Months

Mrs. Helen Pickens, Pickaway County Health Nurse, today submitted her activity report for December and January to the Board of Health.

The report listed nine visits to crippled children during the period by the county nurse. Also one child was reportedly taken to the neuro clinic at Chillicothe.

Eight TB visits were made and no new cases of tuberculosis were discovered. Sixteen persons attended the monthly TB Clinic held at Berger Hospital.

Three visits were made to maternity cases in the county during the period covered by the report and three mental health visits were made. One psychological test was arranged for a county resident by the department.

A TOTAL of 1,088 eye examinations were given at Washington and Scioto Twp. schools by mothers' clubs and the Lions Club gave the tests at Ashville and Teays Valley. The Circleville Lions Club also supplied several children with glasses.

A total of 89 visits were made to school children's homes by the request of teachers. One case of neglect was referred to Juvenile Court by Mrs. Pickens as a result of her home investigation.

The County Health Department assisted the Welfare Department and the Presbyterian Church with a holiday program and distribution of food baskets and clothing.

The report listed two cases of venereal disease that were investigated by the county nurse during the two-month period.

Fifteen vaccinations for smallpox were administered and a total of 69 immunizations were given within the period.

Youngstown Judge Runs for Tribunal

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Petitions for the Republican nomination to the unexpired Ohio Supreme Court term ending Jan. 1, 1967, have been filed by Appellate Judge Paul W. Brown of Youngstown.

Judge Brown, of the 7th District Court of Appeals, seeks the seat held by Democrat Rankin Gibson. Gibson, appointed to the court when Judge Kingsley A. Taft became chief justice, is running for re-election.

The World Today

WASHINGTON (AP)—Lucky Calvin Coolidge was president when the strong silent type was still an American ideal. It fitted him fine. He didn't have much to say anyway. When he did use radio, it was dismal.

President Franklin D. Roosevelt went on radio every time he thought it useful, and he used news conferences, too, although the latter weren't on radio and there wasn't television.

He became a kind of national father by the sheer magic of his humorous, barbed, consoling, concerned and always controlled voice. No wonder he stayed in office. Who wants to throw out the head of the family?

Now radio and television have made a president an almost constant showman. This can be a political help. But when he has to keep asking himself—how am I doing?—in order to stay in focus, it's bound to make him self-conscious.

President John F. Kennedy worked overtime, staying in front of the camera. The picture that came across was of a highly intelligent, extremely well informed, witty and self-assured young man.

This was how he wanted to appear, of course, and he did it all with great ease and grace.

But no one watching, either at one of his news conferences or on television, could escape the feeling he was conscious of the whole country observing his every expression and gesture, and judging accordingly.

President Johnson in public has neither Kennedy's wit nor

By James Marlow

greatest asset is one which simply can't be shown on a screen. That's his relentless driving energy—the endless hours, the deluge of telephone calls, the White House sessions with his aides, the conferences with members of Congress—to push through what he wants done. In this particular area—the energy, drive, follow-up and determination to keep trying—Kennedy could never match him. Kennedy's biggest defect, perhaps, was lack of pursuit, his failures to hammer on Congress to get what he wanted. This explains why some of his biggest programs, once they ran into stiff congressional resistance, bogged down.

Logan Elm Tutors Turn Archeologists

ARCHEOLOGISTS — Dow West, left, and Harold Povenmire, Logan Elm School District teachers, scrutinize fragments of carbon. The material was unearthed when they excavated an Indian Mound on the Kenneth Cooper farm east of the Saltcreek Twp. school on the South Perry Road.

By STEVE JONES

A pair of teachers in the Logan Elm School district have turned into amateur archeologists. They are Harold Povenmire, seventh grade teacher at Saltcreek Twp., and Dow West, who teaches at Logan Elm High School.

The tutors are exploring an Indian burial mound on the Kenneth Cooper farm in Saltcreek Twp.

Mr. and Mrs. Cooper and their two older children, Dan and Peggy, are enthusiastic helpers in the project.

Permission to probe the mound was granted by Cooper, Dr. Raymond Baby, curator of archeology at Ohio State University, has asked them to keep a written and photographic record of their discoveries if possible.

THEIR first step in the probe was to determine whether the mound was actually of Indian origin or if it could be glacial deposited.

The sides of the mound slope very gently, and it is not too high. Cooper has no trouble cultivating the area with modern farm equipment.

However, the initial discovery of small bits of carbon and shells soon indicated it was, in fact, an Indian mound.

One nearly complete skeleton has been found in the mound. And in the midst of the human bones an arrow head was discovered. Povenmire surmised the person might possibly have been killed by the arrow.

At a deeper depth, approximately four feet, the teachers found a group of bones which appeared to have been burned. They were able to identify several pieces of human skull, and a number of other bones.

The bones were piled in an area about two feet in diameter and were about six inches in depth.

ALTHOUGH winter weather has halted the mound probing, Povenmire and West plan to continue when the temperature becomes milder.

Povenmire has had a long term interest in archeology and geology since his childhood. He is very much enthused with the exploratory project.

Kenneth Cooper, who has farmed the field where the mound is located for several years, says crops have seldom flourished on the mound itself, although the remainder of the tract is fairly productive.

And he noted this meager production has continued throughout several years in spite of special applications of fertilizers to the mound itself.

Povenmire and West were both biological science majors in college. However, they had a smattering of archeology in geology courses at Ohio State.

Povenmire feels there are many mounds, such as the one they are currently probing, which have never been excavated.

THEY HAVE plans to probe other mounds in Saltcreek Twp. to determine their origin.

An effigy mound, the Tarlton Cross mound, is located about four miles from the Cooper farm. There are a number of known Indian mounds in the Saltcreek Valley.

Health Nurse Lists Report For 2 Months

Mrs. Helen Pickens, Pickaway County Health Nurse, today submitted her activity report for December and January to the Board of Health.

The report listed nine visits to crippled children during the period by the county nurse. Also one child was reportedly taken to the neuro clinic at Chillicothe.

Eight TB visits were made and no new cases of tuberculosis were discovered. Sixteen persons attended the monthly TB Clinic held at Berger Hospital.

Three visits were made to maternity cases in the county during the period covered by the report and three mental health visits were made. One psychological test was arranged for a county resident by the department.

A TOTAL of 1,088 eye examinations were given at Washington and Scioto Twp. schools by mothers' clubs and the Lions Club gave the tests at Ashville and Teays Valley. The Circleville Lions Club also supplied several children with glasses.

A total of 89 visits were made to school children's homes by the request of teachers. One case of neglect was referred to Juvenile Court by Mrs. Pickens as a result of her home investigation.

The County Health Department assisted the Welfare Department and the Presbyterian Church with a holiday program and distribution of food baskets and clothing.

The report listed two cases of venereal disease that were investigated by the county nurse during the two-month period.

Fifteen vaccinations for smallpox were administered and a total of 69 immunizations were given within the period.

Youngstown Judge Runs for Tribunal

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Petitions for the Republican nomination to the unexpired Ohio Supreme Court term ending Jan. 1, 1967, have been filed by Appellate Judge Paul W. Brown of Youngstown.

Judge Brown, of the 7th District Court of Appeals, seeks the seat held by Democrat Rankin Gibson. Gibson, appointed to the court when Judge Kingsley A. Taft became chief justice, is running for re-election.

The World Today

WASHINGTON (AP) — Lucky Calvin Coolidge was president when the strong silent type was still an American ideal. It fitted him fine. He didn't have much to say anyway. When he did use radio, it was dismal.

President Franklin D. Roosevelt went on radio every time he thought it useful, and he used news conferences, too, although the latter weren't on radio and there wasn't television.

He became a kind of national father by the sheer magic of his humorous, barbed, consoling, concerned and always controlled voice. No wonder he stayed in office. Who wants to throw out the head of the family?

Now radio and television have made a president an almost constant showman. This can be a political help. But when he has to keep asking himself—how am I doing?—in order to stay in focus, it's bound to make him self-conscious.

President John F. Kennedy worked overtime, staying in front of the camera. The picture that came across was of a highly intelligent, extremely well informed, witty and self-assured young man.

This was how he wanted to appear, of course, and he did it all with great ease and grace.

But no one watching, either at one of his news conferences or on television, could escape the feeling he was conscious of the whole country observing his every expression and gesture, and judging accordingly.

President Johnson in public has neither Kennedy's wit nor ease. He not only looks far more self-conscious than his predecessor but acts that way. For example, at last Saturday's news conference, which was televised.

Johnson is a hearty, positive, ebullient man. Saturday he looked deliberately subdued, almost mournful with dignity, and certainly not too positive on at least one area of foreign affairs.

This was when he gave his views on French President de Gaulle's proposal to neutralize Southeast Asia. Later, after some conversations with the State Department, his aides sought to clarify his meaning.

The whole performance appeared unnatural for a man of Johnson's zip. This probably explains why he still hasn't settled on any one way to hold a news conference.

Even so, with the statements he has made, the policies he has announced, the programs he has mentioned to Congress, and his few solemn public talks on television, he has done well politically.

The evidence is in the public opinion polls which show him ahead of all the would-be presidential candidates among the Republicans.

Unfortunately for him, his

By James Marlow

greatest asset is one which simply can't be shown on a screen. That's his relentless driving energy—the endless hours, the deluge of telephone calls, the White House sessions with his aides, the conferences with members of Congress—to push through what he wants done.

In this particular area — the energy, drive, follow-up and determination to keep trying—Kennedy could never match

him. Kennedy's biggest defect, perhaps, was lack of pursuit, his failures to hammer on Congress to get what he wanted.

This explains why some of his biggest programs, once they ran into stiff congressional resistance, bogged down.

OSU Coach Elated by Big Victory

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Fred Taylor mopped his brow, shook his head in almost disbelief, and exclaimed:

"That was our most satisfying victory of the season."

The jubilant Ohio State basketball coach was holding court in a post-game session after his Buckeyes had won an 86-85 thriller over second-ranked Michigan Monday night.

"Everyone was just great," Taylor offered. "I thought we executed our defense beautifully. Our offensive pattern was simple. We tried to set up Bradds and Ricketts and we did."

Gary Bradds with 42 points and Dick Ricketts with 12 paced the Buckeye attack. But Don DeVoe contributed 11 and Tom Bowman, who played a brilliant floor game, chipped in with 10.

"We knew that Cazzie Russell and Bill Buntin were practically unstoppable," Taylor said. "So we geared our defense on stopping (Larry) Tregoning, (Oliver) Darden and (Bob) Cantrell."

That trio was limited to 29 points while Russell and Buntin combined for 56.

It was the first setback for the potent Wolverines after six straight victories in the conference and only their second loss in 17 games.

The Buckeyes, seeking a fifth straight title, scrambled back into title contention with a 4-2 mark.

Orange Bowl Ends Big Eight Pact

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — The Orange Bowl Committee will go into the open market for opponents for the annual New Year's Day football game in an effort to attract a bigger national audience.

The committee announced Monday it was ending its 1-year-old contract which called for the Big Eight Conference to provide one team for the game.

Committee president Ben Benjamin said "it was the hope of the Orange Bowl Committee that all sections of our country would thereby become eligible for our bowl."

The committee and the Big Eight's executive director, Wayne Duke, agreed their relationship had been pleasant and said no hard feelings resulted from the decision.

Russell Is Top Rebounder in NBA

NEW YORK (AP) — Big Bill Russell, the Boston Celtics' defensive demon, has been making his presence felt under the backboards much to the displeasure of his National Basketball Association foes.

The 6-foot-9 pivotman, who was the league's most valuable player last year, displaced San Francisco's Wilt Chamberlain as the No. 1 rebounder during the past week.

Russell has hauled down 1,203 rebounds in 49 games for a 24.6 average, league statistics showed today. The 7-foot-1 Chamberlain dropped to second in rebounding with a 22.0 average on 1,188 retrieves in 54 games.

U.S. Collects First Olympic Gold Medal

INNSBRUCK, Austria (AP)—Terry McDermott, a barber from Essexville, Mich., cracked the Soviet Union's long-time speed skating monopoly and won the first gold medal for the United States with a 500-meter victory today in the ninth Winter Olympic Games.

The 23-year-old former Michigan Tech student, who clips hair and shaves customers in his dad's barber shop, trimmed one-tenth of a second off the Olympic record by flashing the 546.8 yards in 40.1 seconds.

The record had been set at Cortina, Italy, in 1956 by the Soviet Union's Eugeny Grishnin, who finished in a triple tie for second with another Russian, Vladimir Orlov, and Alv Gjestvang of Norway, all clocked in 40.6.

McDermott outsped 43 skaters from 19 countries in giving the United States its first speed skating medal since 1952, when Ken Henry won the 500.

The medal was the third for the United States, with a silver and a bronze won previously by spunky Jean Saubert of Lakeview, Ore., in the ladies' giant slalom and slalom on the skiing slopes of Lizum Valley.

Earlier, a skiing marksman from the Soviet Union, Vladimir Melanin, won the tough biathlon test and Germans dominated both the men's and women's individual events in tobogganing, a new Olympic event.

Also, Scotty Allen, the 15-year-old schoolboy from Smoke Rise, N.J., held fourth place in the men's figure skating competition, still being contested, and Monty Hoyt of Denver remained among the leading contenders.

The Russians, with two medals in the biathlon and two silvers in the 500-meter speed skating test, boosted their total to 19 — more than twice that of second place Germany, with 8.

Just when it seemed as if the United States would be shut out of any first places in the Games, McDermott uncorked a superb race to overtake the three leaders.

Eddie Rudolph of Northbrook, Ill., knowing he had to do 40.6 or better to stand any chance of a medal — only just missed it. He was clocked in 40.9.

Tom Gray of Bloomington, the other American entrant, did 41.5.

The Germans finished 1-2-3 in the men's tobogganing—known as luge in Europe—and 1-2 in the women's, with the bronze medal going to Austria.

The luge is a small sled, little more than a wooden plank and two iron runners, on which European children slide down snow banks.

The Olympic luge track for men measures 1,100 yards with 18 tricky, hairpin bends. An unseasonal thaw made the track almost unusable Monday but an overnight freeze made it lightening fast.

Thomas Koehler of Germany, a 23-year-old student, won the men's individual tobogganing title by sweeping down the course four times in 3 minutes, 26.77 seconds.

His teammate, Klaus Michael Bonsack, a locksmith, registered 3:27.04, with the best time of all on his final run of 52.42 seconds. Hans Plenk made it a sweep in 3:30.15.

The women's luge title went to Ortnu Enderlein, 24-year-old East German factory worker, who shot down the course four times in a total of 3 minutes, 24.67.

Ilse Geisler, a teammate, was second in 3:27.42 followed by Helene Thurner, a 25-year-old Austrian housemaid, in 3:29.06.

The lone U.S. entry, Dorothy Hirschland of Closter, N.J., withdrew after the first run.

THE BARON'S BOYS—The Baron of Basketball, Adolph Rupp, of Kentucky, has another of his winning teams this year, led by this quartet of swishers headed by Cotton Nash, 6'5" All-American from Leominster, Mass. The Wildcats now are 13-2 for the season, go into a heavy February schedule. Rupp, in his 33rd year at Kentucky, has seen his charges win 20 Southeastern conference titles.

Rupp Wins His 700th, Lauds Cagers of South

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Like any good Kentucky colonel, Adolph Rupp had a couple of kind words to say about the South.

"One of my greatest satisfactions is seeing the South — once the laughing stock of the nation in basketball — now respectable and with teams rated among the top ten nationally."

Rupp made the observation Monday night after his Kentucky Wildcats knocked off Georgia 103-83 and, 1, took over sole possession of the Southeastern Conference lead; 2, provided Rupp with his 700th coaching victory and 3, prompted him to do a bit of reflecting.

Southern basketball was, as Rupp observed, in pretty sad shape when he took over the Kentucky reins as a 29-year-old coach.

But that was some 33 years, four national championships and 700 victories ago.

In that time, under the leadership of Rupp and Kentucky, the Southland has emerged as one of the nation's strongest basketball areas.

Proof? Look at the national rankings. Four of the nation's top ten come from the South: No. 3 Kentucky, No. 5 Davidson, No. 7 Duke and No. 8 Vanderbilt.

Both Kentucky and Vanderbilt protected those high ratings Monday, Vandy with a 111-73 romp over Alabama but second-ranked Michigan had its troubles.

The Wolverines, the only other ranked team in action, was edged out by Ohio State 86-65. It was Michigan's first loss in the Big Ten and only the second defeat in 17 starts for the Wolverines.

Ohio State trailed by nine points three times in the first half but rallied for an 81-73 lead with three minutes to go. The

Wolverines closed to within one before time ran out.

The Buckeyes' Gary Bradds sparked their upset effort with 42 points.

In Athens, Ga., site of Rupp's first loss as a Kentucky coach Feb. 13, 1931, Cotton Nash and Ted Deeken led the charge for No. 700. Nash tossed in 33 points and Deeken added 29 as the Wildcats moved to a 16-2 overall record.

Vanderbilt, upset by Auburn over the weekend, bounced back against Alabama. The Commodores had eight players scoring in double figures, led by Clyde Lee with 15. The 111-point total represented the most points ever scored against an Alabama team.

In some of the other major games, Kansas State had to go to overtime to beat Nebraska 73-66, Nick Werkman scored 41 points and led Seton Hall to a 110-86 romp over Wagner, Colorado upset Oklahoma State 63-59 and gained a share of the Big Eight lead, while Washington of St. Louis put on a fantastic second half shooting show, hitting 16 of 21 attempts from the floor, in a 75-68 conquest of Drake.

Philly Pro Gridders Still Hunt for Coach

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Jerry Wolman, millionaire Washington builder who officially became the new owner of the National Football League Philadelphia Eagles Monday, is considering "at least half a dozen" for the job as head coach of the team.

Wolman said he is still looking for a replacement for Nick Skorich and admitted there is a time problem in picking a new coach. He hopes to have an announcement within two weeks.

The women's luge title went to Orton Enderlein, 24-year-old East German factory worker, who shot down the course four times in a total of 3 minutes, 24.67.

Ilse Geisler, a teammate, was second in 3:27.42 followed by Helene Thurner, a 25-year-old Austrian housemaid, in 3:29.06.

The lone U.S. entry, Dorothy Hirschland of Closter, N.J., withdrew after the first run.

THE BARON'S BOYS—The Baron of Basketball, Adolph Rupp, of Kentucky, has another of his winning teams this year, led by this quartet of swishers headed by Cotton Nash, 6'5" All-American from Leominster, Mass. The Wildcats now are 13-2 for the season, go into a heavy February schedule. Rupp, in his 33rd year at Kentucky, has seen his charges win 20 Southeastern conference titles.

Cage Season Nears End

Area Teams Schedule Nine Games Friday

The area basketball schedule lists nine games Friday night and only two for Saturday, as the cage season nears its end.

Ross County Schools will be completing their regular schedule Friday night. The Ross tournament drawing is slated Saturday morning.

Teays Valley will be playing an alumni team in a game postponed from an original Jan. 17 date.

The Jackson Wildcats will host the Ohio Deaf quintet. Williamsport will travel to Berne Union, Monroe plays a non-league battle at Darby and Logan Elm will have Scioto Valley Conference tilt at Laurelvale.

THE ROSS schools playing are Kingston at Clarksburg and Centralia at South.

Madison South is at the Plains of Mt. Sterling in a Darby Valley League contest and Millersport is at Amanda-Clearcreek in the Fairfield County League.

On Saturday night, Logan Elm will renew what has come to be a traditional rivalry with Amanda-Clearcreek in a game played on the Braves' court. Fairfield Union will travel to Teays Valley for a game.

Drawings are set this week for Central District teams.

The sectional tournaments, which replace the county events in the central district, will begin Feb. 21.

Teams in the Teays Valley regional are Logan Elm, Darby, Williamsport, Jackson Monroe, Madison South, The Plains, Amanda, Berne Union and Lancaster Fenwick.

Booster Club Meets Tomorrow

Circleville Booster Club will meet 8 p. m. tomorrow in Room 101 of Circleville High School.

All parents of varsity and reserve basketball team members are requested to attend the meeting. Plans will be made for the upcoming basketball banquet.

Purdue basketball coach Ray Eddy is in his 14th season.

Rupp Wins His 700th, Lauds Cagers of South

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Like any good Kentucky colonel, Adolph Rupp had a couple of kind words to say about the South.

"One of my greatest satisfactions is seeing the South — once the laughing stock of the nation in basketball — now respectable and with teams rated among the top ten nationally."

Rupp made the observation Monday night after his Kentucky Wildcats knocked off Georgia 103-83 and, 1, took over sole possession of the Southeastern Conference lead; 2, provided Rupp with his 700th coaching victory and 3, prompted him to do a bit of reflecting.

Southern basketball was, as Rupp observed, in pretty sad shape when he took over the Kentucky reins as a 29-year-old coach.

But that was some 33 years, four national championships and 700 victories ago.

In that time, under the leadership of Rupp and Kentucky, the Southland has emerged as one of the nation's strongest basketball areas.

Proof? Look at the national rankings. Four of the nation's top ten come from the South: No. 3 Kentucky, No. 5 Davidson, No. 7 Duke and No. 8 Vanderbilt.

Both Kentucky and Vanderbilt protected those high ratings Monday, Vandy with a 111-73 romp over Alabama but second-ranked Michigan had its troubles.

The Wolverines, the only other ranked team in action, was edged out by Ohio State 86-65. It was Michigan's first loss in the Big Ten and only the second defeat in 17 starts for the Wolverines.

Ohio State trailed by nine points three times in the first half but rallied for an 81-73 lead with three minutes to go. The

Wolverines closed to within one before time ran out.

The Buckeyes' Gary Bradds sparked their upset effort with 42 points.

In Athens, Ga., site of Rupp's first loss as a Kentucky coach Feb. 13, 1931, Cotton Nash and Ted Deeken led the charge for No. 700. Nash tossed in 33 points and Deeken added 29 as the Wildcats moved to a 16-2 overall record.

Vanderbilt, upset by Auburn over the weekend, bounced back against Alabama. The Commodores had eight players scoring in double figures, led by Clyde Lee with 15. The 111-point total represented the most points ever scored against an Alabama team.

In some of the other major games, Kansas State had to go to overtime to beat Nebraska 73-66, Nick Werkman scored 41 points and led Seton Hall to a 110-86 romp over Wagner, Colorado upset Oklahoma State 63-59 and gained a share of the Big Eight lead, while Washington of St. Louis put on a fantastic second half shooting show, hitting 16 of 21 attempts from the floor, in a 75-68 conquest of Drake.

Philly Pro Gridders Still Hunt for Coach

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Jerry Wolman, millionaire Washington builder who officially became the new owner of the National Football League Philadelphia Eagles Monday, is considering "at least half a dozen" for the job as head coach of the team.

Wolman said he is still looking for a replacement for Nick Skorich and admitted there is a time problem in picking a new coach. He hopes to have an announcement within two weeks.

UCLA Keeps Top Rating In Cage Poll

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Unbeaten UCLA, only major college basketball team with a perfect record, remained in the No. 1 position today in the weekly Associated Press poll.

The UCLA Bruins drew 43 first place votes among the 49 cast by the panel of the nation's sports writers and sportscasters. The six other writers ranked them second.

Defeats of Davidson, Vanderbilt and DePaul shook up the Top Ten but nobody was knocked out. Davidson dropped from third to fifth after losing its first game to West Virginia 75-73. Vanderbilt tumbled from fifth to eighth after bowing to Auburn 81-63. DePaul slipped one rung to 10th after losing to Louisville 83-79.

Michigan remained in second place by boosting its record to 15-1 with a 95-79 romp over Michigan State. UCLA, however, rolled over the Santa Barbara branch of the University of California in two games to make it 17-0 for the year. Michigan drew five firsts but trailed UCLA in points 484-428.

Kentucky advanced a peg to third at 15-2 on a victory over Florida and Wichita whipped both Cincinnati and Marquette for a 16-3 record and moved up from seventh to fourth. Fifth-place Davidson bounced back from its first defeat and clobbered VMI 129-91.

Villanova held tight to sixth by downing American University and Detroit. Duke moved up to seventh on victories over South Carolina and Navy. Vanderbilt, in eighth place, was pursued closely by Chicago Loyola, which won three games during the week over Dayton, Western Michigan and Iowa.

Ex-Ohio Coach Killed in Crash

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Bill Gibbs, Tennessee freshman basketball coach killed in Monday's plane crash at Gainesville, Fla., had an extensive Ohio background.

Gibbs was a graduate of Miami of Ohio and coached high school teams at Painesville and Fairborn, Ohio, before joining Vol coach Ray Mears' staff when the former Wittenberg coach took over at Tennessee in 1962.

Gibbs was born in Dayton, Ohio. His family moved to Chicago when he was 6.

His frosh team this season has 13 victories in 14 games. When Mears was ill during the 1962-63 season, Gibbs took over the varsity and piloted the Volunteers to a 13-11 record.

Jay McCreary is in his seventh season as Louisiana State University basketball coach.

Jack Linton Is Chairman Of Local Heart Fund Drive

Jack E. Linton, 892 N. Court St., will serve as chairman of the local 1964 Heart Fund campaign, it was announced today by The Central Ohio Heart Assn.

Proceeds of the campaign will be used to fight the heart and blood vessel diseases, now responsible for more than 54 per cent of all deaths in the United States. These diseases include heart attack, stroke and other complications of hardening of the arteries, high blood pressure, rheumatic fever and inborn heart defects and many other heart and blood vessel disorders.

The annual nationwide campaign, which supports the research, education and community service programs of the Heart Assn. begins with the opening of Heart Month on Feb. 1 and continues through Feb. 29 Central Ohio Heart Assn., with its county organizations, allocated $176,445 last year to support research at medical centers in the central Ohio area.

"I am happy to accept chairmanship of the 1964 Heart Fund campaign and to join actively in this health crusade which is saving hearts in our own community and throughout the nation," Linton said.

THIS assignment is challenging because the Heart cause is so very important. It is unique in that it is concerned with a great complex of diseases, which constitutes the Number 1 health problem of our time."

The Heart Fund drive will reach its high point on the week end of Heart Sunday, Feb. 23 when volunteers will visit their neighbors to distribute information about the heart diseases and to receive their Heart Fund contributions.

Similar Heart Sunday visitations are to be carried out by more than 1,750,000 volunteers in residential communities throughout the nation.
